

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. <sup>1</sup> General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 22nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disbandment, 24th Oct. 1820. He was in the field in 1815 and 16, and during the whole of the Mahratta war in 1817-19, the published official records show that his conduct was conspicuous in the Brigade Cavalry actions of Bucknowlis and of Nagrore, and in that of Ashta (24th Feb. 1818), the enemy having charged, overthrew one Regiment and cut down the General commanding, he, as Brigade Major, incurred the responsibility of countermanding the retreat, of ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the Poishwar, the death of his Commander in Chief (Gokla), and he rescued the Rajah of Satarrah, the influential events that terminated the war. At the siege of Capaul-droog, he commanded a Battery at the storm (13th May 1819), he blew open the first gate with a galloper gun of the 22nd Dragoons, and heading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded, he received at the summit of that strong hill fort, at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his lungs and body that killed the Grenadier behind him. The Governor General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823-24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres, and was recommended for promotion by the Governor and Commander in Chief. In Jan. 1824 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1826 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the passage of some cloth driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1828 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body by a shot. From April 1854 to Dec. 1857 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier at a "period of peculiar difficulty and imminently threatened war" he commanded a large force in Kaffraria with approbation and thanks publicly recorded. From April 1860 to April 1861 he was Commander of the Forces and Lieut. Governor of Jamaica and its Dependencies. In 1827 he was sent to England from Malta to establish discipline in a corps that had fired at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the Battalion shot him three times on the public parade, they fired into his windows and shot through the cheek a field aide who stood behind him. Without calling in other Troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overawed the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lieut. General to the Horse Guards, and elicited through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary punishment to which he had resorted had effectually repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

<sup>2</sup> Colonel Ross commanded a detached force on the Nepal frontier in 1859; drove the rebels from the plains of Tilawara where there was a large Bazar, and next day attacked them in the Jungle of Pipurea, the whole rebel army in consequence retired to Botoul, where they were cut up by Sir R. <sup>1</sup> Lieut. General Dennis served with the 40th Regt. in China (Medal), and was present at Chusan (both operations), Canton, and Amoy; after which he was employed as a military magistrate at Chusan. In August 1849 a determined and desperate band of insurgent fanatics having defeated a native force which had been marched against them, killing a European officer and several Sepoys, Major Dennis, with a force consisting of a Grenadier Company of the 94th and 100 Sepoys of the Madras Native Infantry, encountered them at a Pagoda near Teermanam Coonettos, in Malabar. On the approach of our troops these madmen, armed with matchlocks, spears, and war knives, rushed out upon the detachment, and a sanguinary conflict ensued, terminating in the destruction of the entire Mopla band of 64 in number, three of whom were killed by Major Dennis, who received a contusion on the chest and a few slight wounds. Served with the 52nd Light Infantry in the Indian campaign of 1857, including the defeat of the Sealkote mutineers on the banks of the Ravee on the 12th and 16th July, the siege and capture of Delhi from 14th August, protected the camp during the assault on the 14th and 15th Sept., joined the Regt. in the city on 16th Sept. and commanded it until the final capture—mentioned in despatches, and thanked by the Governor General (Medal with Clasp).

<sup>2</sup> Major Acton served with the 51st Light Infantry in Burmah from Feb. 1853 to the end of the war, and was present with Captain Irby's Detachment of four Companies with Brigadier General Chespe's Force during the whole of the successful operations in the Monabeh district, ending in the assault and capture, on the 19th March 1853, of the stronghold of the Burmese chief Dyatsoon (Medal with Clasp for Pegu).
